

Seminar on the History of Pontic Hellenism

Saturday, February 12, 2022

11.00-11.15	Opening by Mr. George Kalantzis, Secretary General for Religious Affairs, Ministry of Education and Religious Affairs
11.15-12.00	Kyriakos S. Hatzikyriakidis, Associate Professor, Chair of Pontic Studies, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki	Historical Overview of the Pontus of the Greeks: Geography, Society, Economy (15th–20th Centuries).
12.00-12.15	Break
12.15-13.00	Theodosius Ar. Kyriakidis, Visiting Professor at the International University of Greece, Research Associate at the Chair of Pontic Studies, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki	The Genocide of the Greeks of the Ottoman Empire: Historical Context, Interpretations, and the Long Road to International Recognition.
13.00-13.15	Break
13.15-14.00	Nikolaos Ath. Misolidis, Ph.D. candidate in Modern History at the University of the Peloponnese, research associate at the Chair of Pontic Studies, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki	The arrival and resettlement of refugees through the exploration of digital sources.