

15-05-19 Awards and honorary mentions ceremony for the student short film competition on the theme “Two Hundred Years since 1821”

The awards and honorary mentions ceremony for the PanHellenic student short film competition on the theme “Two Hundred Years since 1821” was held in the “Galateia Saranti” hall of the Ministry of Education, Research and Religious Affairs, in the presence of the Metropolitan of Demetrias and Almyros, Mr Ignatios, honoring the students who distinguished themselves in the competition.

This competition was organized for the first time this year by the General Secretariat for Religious Affairs of the Ministry of Education, Research and Religious Affairs, in cooperation with the Special Synodical Committee on Cultural Identity of the Church of Greece, as part of the official celebration of the 200th anniversary of the start of the War of Independence in 1821.

The prize of the competition was participation in an educational program, which included a visit to the historic areas of Sparta, Mystras, and Monemvasia.

The General Secretariat for Religious Affairs warmly thanks all students who participated in the competition and congratulates the winners, the teachers who effectively supported the entire effort and, especially the children’s parents.

It also thanks the Special Synodical Committee on Cultural Identity and the members of the Joint Working Committee of the Memorandum of Cooperation between the General Secretariat for Religious Affairs and the Special Synodical Committee on Cultural Identity for their excellent collaboration in organizing the competition.
